

Music at the Market concert series presents Venyx band tomorrow, July 11, 7 p.m., at Commodore Schoolyard at Commodore Square Pa

The Music at the Market concert series will continue tomorrow, Thursday, July 11, at 7 p.m., with Venyx band.

Venyx has been labeled Northwest Ohio's premiere party band.

The five member band—Matt Kretzer, drums; Dan Stewart, bass, Mark Shumaker, guitar, and Jessica Stewart and Cynthia Zachrich, vocals—is composed of seasoned and talented musicians who combine their musicianship with powerful vocals. The vocalists have opposing styles that blend into unforgettable harmonies.

The band's music spans current-top 40 hits, old school R&B, pop and rock favorites. They utilize their talents by presenting renditions of current and past hits that work well with two lead singers and complexities that powerful musicians can handle.

Concert-goers are encouraged to bring blankets and chairs to the lawn of Commodore Schoolyard in downtown Perrysburg and enjoy an evening of music. Upcoming concerts include:

- July 18—6th Edition
- July 25—Luke James and the Thieves
- August 1—Cottonwood Jam String Band
- August 8—The Home Wreckers
- August 15—The Nu-Tones
- August 22—Suburban Legend

Venyx band will perform in the gazebo tomorrow evening, July 11, 7 p.m., at Commodore Schoolyard. From left, are Jessica Stewart, Matt Kretzer, Cynthia Zachrich, Dan Stewart and Mark Shumaker.

•August 29—Nine Lives Group and City of Perrysburg.
This series is sponsored by the Perrysburg Convention and Visitors Bureau, Ed Schmidt Automotive town Perrysburg.

In the event of inclement weather, concerts will move inside to the Judy Beck auditorium, 140 East Indiana Avenue.

For additional information on Music at the Market series, contact Main Office at 419-324-4758 or send an e-mail to info@marketery.com.